The Employment Guide Partners with National Council on Aging and other Tennessee Career Center partners including Tennessee Department of Labor & Workforce Development, Veteran's Service and Nashville Career Advancement Center, a workforce development agency.

Nashville September 17, 2008 – In response to an aging workforce and a tightening labor market, the National Council on Aging and The Employment Guide have combined efforts in order to bring together older workers with companies who seek their talents. Nashville's Older Worker/Veteran Career Fair is part of the Employ the Older Workers Series, taking place in more than 40 cities across the country from Aug. 22 to Oct. 23.

Who:

Workers age 40 and older seeking employment

Sponsored by: National Council On Aging and The Employment Guide

Participating employers represent industries such as health care, customer service, hospitality, finance, sales, insurance, skilled trades, transportation, security and more.

Nashville Older Worker /Veteran Career Fair

When:

September 17, 2008

9:00AM- 12:00PM (40+ Job Seekers and Veterans)

12:00PM-3:00 PM (Open to all job seekers)

Where:

LP Field Home of The Tennessee Titans
1 Titans Way, Nashville, Tennessee

Why:

Employ the Nashville Older Worker/Veteran Career Fair Series is held in conjunction with the U.S. Department of Labor's National Employ Older Workers Week, Sept. 22-26, 2008.

The U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that in 2000, 13 percent of the U.S. workforce was 55 and older and, by 2010 that figure will likely increase to 17 percent. Nearly 7 out of 10 workers age 45-74 tell AARP that they plan to work in some capacity in retirement.
